This year's annual spring event at the Governor's Mansion State Historic Park is an Afternoon Tea featuring costumed docents representing 13 of California's First Ladies who lived in the stately Victorian Home.

Highlighted at this year's event is a special exhibit about Jane Gallatin Powers, a founder of Carmel-by-the-Sea, a noted artist of her day, and the eldest daughter of the first owner of the house.

Erin Gafill, Jane's great-great granddaughter, will be on hand to share memories.
